Mrs. Satira Chamberlain celebrated her 93d birthday at her home in Wells River last week. Her children, grandchildren and friends gathered to congratulate her.

The city of Burlington has purchased 1,240 feet of lake front from the property of Miss Mary E. Arthur and about 20 acres of valuable land for park purposes. The purchase price was $10,000.

The National Acme company, which already has a plant located at Windsor, is planning to remove its Cleveland, O. plant to Windsor this summer, the only impediment seeming to be lack of housing facilities.

James Lowe, in his auto, tipped over on a narrow culvert in Wells River a days ago, breaking his arm, his shoulder, and tearing off, or nearly so, one ear. Three men were with him, two of whom escaped injury.

In October comes another Y. M. C. A. drive. Vermont's quota is between $200, 000 and $250,000 and A. C. Hurd, who has been president of the Windsor county association for many years, will have charge of the campaign.

Russell, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. White of Windsor, has a fractured skull, received when he fell through a skylight in a block. He dropped 20 feet to a cement floor and landed on his head. His condition is critical.

George Rustedt, Rutland City health officer, has ordered that all water from the city supply be boiled before being used for drinking purposes, as an examination shows the water to be unusually full of sewage bacteria, due to a recent heavy rainfall.

P. D. Pike & Son have completed their new dam at Stowe, to take the place of the one washed away by high water eight weeks ago. The dam is 315 feet in length, varies in height from eight to 23 feet and contains 600 loads of stone and 538 barrels of cement.

Mrs. Lila Woodbury Lane, daughter of late Governor U. A. Woodbury, has enlisted in Boston for the duration of the war as a yeowoman. She will go on active duty Aug. 1 and is to have charge of the United States Service club canteen for sailors and soldiers in Boston.

Horatio B. Cushman, who founded a system of bakeshops in New York City died last week at his home in Yonkers N. Y., of a complication of diseases, at the age of 87 years. Mr. Cushman was born in Wilmington and went to New York in 1851, learning the bakery business and opening the first Cushman store. After getting a good start in business life, he enlisted in the Civil war and served four years, returning to New York and enlarging still further the bakeshop system, until it was the largest bakery enterprise in any city in the world. The shops are still in existence, although he had been retired from business for many years.
